FEBRUARY 2011

Hi, my name is Lynn Lawhon and I am humbled to serve as the Community Lay Director for the Big Country Emmaus Community in 2011. I attended Men's Walk #68 in April of 1999. I am reluctant to say that my walk "changed my life forever". I will say, however, that my walk permanently impacted me. A more clear understanding of the totality of God's grace can not be duplicated. Anywhere. Any weekend. And for that I am grateful.

I am married to a brown-haired, brown-eyed beauty. Delores attended Women's Walk #138, and she and I will have been married 30 years in July. Our daughter Cami lives in Louisville, Kentucky with her husband Phillip Bethancourt. Phillip is completing his PhD in systematic theology at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Phillip is in the process of writing his dissertation on spiritual warfare. Phillip and Cami have two boys. Nathan is 2 years old and Lawson is 6 months. We are prayerful that God will see fit for those two grandsons, as well as their parents, to migrate back to Texas just as soon as their Daddy finishes his doctorate.

Please look for opportunities to serve in our Community this year—they abound. I'll see you out at Leuders, or at River of Life on February 1st.

De Colores,
Lynn
